

Courses in foreign languages

Academic year	2023-2024
Area subject code	05.8
Title of course	Cross-cultural and intercultural psychology
Level	I (undergraduate – B.A.) and II (postgraduate – M.A.)
Time of implementation	1st (winter) semester and 2nd (summer) semester
Number of hours	15
ECTS	3
Lecture(s) (name and last name)	Ariadna Ciążęła
Title/position	Dr
Affiliation (Institute, division)	Institute of Human Development Support and Education
Course description (up to 600 words)	The course's aim is to familiarize the students with cross-cultural and intercultural psychology: the differences between different cultures and interactions between them. The world in 21st century has become dynamic; people of different cultures live side-by-side and have contact with one another. Knowing the differences between cultures, understanding different habits and mentality has become very useful nowadays. The following issues will be discussed during the course: individualism and collectivism, stereotypes and prejudices, family and education in different cultures, migrations, racism, helping the immigrants, globalisation and its consequences.
Required readings	Berry J. W., Poortinga Y. H., Segall M. H., Dasen P. R. (2002), Cross-Cultural Psychology. Research and Applications, Cambridge: Cambridge University Press. Heine S. (2008), Cultural psychology, New York: W. W. Norton and Company.
Teaching methods	Presentation, discussion, text analysis
Prerequisites	-
Assessment	Active participation during the classes Final project - workshop on intercultural psychology, stereotypes and prejudices for children
Teaching language	English
Contact person for further information (name, e-mail, phone)	Ariadna Ciążęła adciazela@aps.edu.pl