

International Summer School

“Children’s Rights: Current Approaches in Light of Korczak’s Pedagogical Theories”

16th – 21st September 2012

organised by the UNESCO Janusza Korczak Chair at the Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education in cooperation with the Polish National Commission for UNESCO, the International Janusz Korczak Association and the Polish Janusz Korczak Association

as part of the Janusz Korczak Year established by the Parliament of Poland and the 90th anniversary of the Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education.

The Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education ul. Szczęśliwicka 40, 02-353 Warszawa, Poland
e-mail: unescochair@aps.edu.pl

PROGRAMME (draft)

16.09.2012 - Sunday

Arrivals and accommodation

Participants’ arrival at train station/airport; transfer to the students hotels;
Hospitality volunteers: ASE students and post-graduate students

17.09.2012 - Monday

10.00 – 13.00

Registration

ASE, Office for International relations (building C, floor II, room 3221)
Visit to the Museum of Maria Grzegorzewska and the Academy of Special Education

13.00 – 14.30

Lunch break

14.30 – 15.30

International Summer School Opening Ceremony – Greetings of Distinguish Guests and Participants

His Magnificence Prof. Jan Łaszczyk, Rector of the Academy of Special Education
Prof. Adam Frączek, Chairperson, the UNESCO Janusz Korczak Chair at the ASE

Opening Lecture

15.30 – 16.15

Mr Marek Michalak (Ombudsman for Children of the Republic of Poland)
The Goals and Achievements of the Polish Ombudsman for Children

16.15 – 19.30 Performances of the students of the Gymnasium nr 83 in Warsaw;
Reception

18.09.2012 – Tuesday

09.30 – 11.00 Ms Barbara Smolińska-Theiss (Professor , Academy of Special Education)
Lecture I Janusz Korczak – Pioneer of Children Rights

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Ms Renata Nguyen (Adjunct,)
Lecture II How to Love, Raise and Educate in the Era of Netocracy

13.00 – 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 – 16.00 Ms Urszula Markowska-Manista (Adjunct, Academy of Special Education)
Lecture III Education and Children’s Rights in the Central African Republic – research report

16.00 – 18.00 International Summer Course participants’ self-introduction (part I)

19.09.2012 – Wednesday

09.30 – 11.00 Ms Halina Bortnowska , Mr Piotr Toczyski (Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights)
Lecture IV The Role of a Children’s Newspaper’s Continuity in Korczak’s Pedagogy: pre-workshop lecture

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Ms Marta Ciesielska (Director, Korczakianum Centre for Documentation and Research)
Lecture V Organized Society – from the practice of the House of orphans and Our House

13.00 – 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 – 19.00 Ms Iwona K. Brzewska, Ms Urszula Fuks, Mr Jan Jagielski
Study visit I (The Emanuel Ringelblum Jewish Historical Institute)
The Korczak Programme in the Emanuel Ringelblum Jewish Historical Institute and a Korczak tour of Warsaw

20.09.2012 - Thursday

09.30 – 12.30 Ms Mirosława Kątna (President, Child Right Protection Committee)
Study visit II The Goals and Achievements of the Polish Child Rights Protection Committee

13.00 - 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 – 16.00 Ms Mira Jung (Janusz Korczak Society in Korea; David Yellin Academic College of Education-Lecture VI Israel)
Janusz Korczak’s Pedagogy and Korean Elementary Schools: Possible Applications

16.00- 17.30 Ms Teresa Ogrodzińska (President, Comenius Foundation for Child Development)
Lecture VII Child as Citizen

17.30 – 19.30 International Summer Course participants’ self-introduction (part II)

21.09.2012 - Friday

09.30 – 12.30
Study visit III

Ms Krystyna Starczewska (Director, Non-Public Gymnasium and High School at Raszynska Street)
Korczak's Ideas In Current Pedagogical Practice

13.00 – 14.30

Lunch breake

14.30 – 17.30
Workshop

Ms Halina Bortnowska , Mr Piotr Toczyski
The Role of Children's Newspaper's in Korczak's Pedagogy - workshop

17.30 – 18.30

Participants final comments and reflexions

Mr Adam Frączek (Professor, Chairperson, the Janusz Korczak UNESCO Chair at the ASE)
International Summer School 2012 – summary of activities and closing remarks

22.09.2012 - Saturday

Optional – excursion to the Extermination Camp in Treblinka (7.00 – 19.30);
Individuals activities and send-offs