

9th International Summer School

Readaptation and reintegration as problems of refugee children

14 – 24 September 2015

organised by the UNESCO Janusz Korczak Chair at the Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education in cooperation with the Polish National Commission for UNESCO and Bureau for Academic Recognition and International Exchange – CEEPUS Programme

Information for participants

- The 9th International Summer School “Readaptation and reintegration problems of refugee children in the situation of a threat - children’s rights violation, culture shock, war trauma” will be held in Warsaw, from 14th to 24th September 2015.
- The 9th International Summer School is targeted at young researchers in the fields of psychology, education, sociology and interdisciplinary studies,
- All participants should speak English at the level that allows communication,
- Participants are required to cover the costs of:
 - International travel expenses
 - Travel and health insurance for the duration of their stay in Poland;
 - Passport and visa expenses ,
- Expenses associated with participation in the 9th International Summer School – lodging, costs of meals (lunches, coffee breaks, integration dinner – as indicated in the Programme) and pocket money (for public transport, other meals, etc.) will be cover from the scholarships of the Polish National Commission for UNESCO and/or the Bureau for Academic Recognition and International Exchange,
- All participants will receive a certificate of completion of the 9th International Summer School.
- Deadline:
The application forms duly completed should be sent electronically, no later than 30 March 2015 to:

Ms Krystyna Urbańska
Office for International Relations (room3222)
The Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education
ul. Szczęśliwicka 40; 02-353 Warszawa, Poland
tel. (+48) 22 589 36 15
E-mail: kurbanska@aps.edu.pl

Professor Adam Frączek
Chairperson
of the UNESCO Janusz Korczak Chair
Academy of Special Education in Warsaw