

Ways and Paths of the Polish School of Social Work

Part 1

Edition by Katarzyna Gajek, Zbigniew Głąb,
Mariusz Granosik

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INFORMATION FOR THE READERS

Competition in the memory of Professor Elżbieta Tarkowska – Edition VI 7

THE POLISH SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK IN THE PROCESS OF CREATION

Katarzyna Gajek, Zbigniew Głąb, Mariusz Granosik – Polish School of Social Work: Introduction 9

Krzysztof Frysztański – The Schools (Semi-Schools) Issue in the Social Work Area – Essayistic Approach 13

Ewa Kantowicz – Thirty Years of the Polish Association of the Social Work Schools . . . 23

Agnieszka Naumiuk – Focus Dilemmas. Polish School of Social Work in The Face of Global Change: From Community Traditions, Through the Challenges of Professionalization, To the Needs of Internationalization 41

Mariusz Granosik – Participatory Social Work in Living Environment: Acting, Learning, and Knowledge Co-Production. The School of Łódź 57

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Aleksandra Sander – From Poverty Relief to Social Work – Selected Historical Aspects of The German Tradition of Social Welfare and Social Work 81

Tadeusz Kamiński – Social Work in The Reality of The People’s Republic of Poland – Aleksander Kamiński’s Contribution to The Development of Polish Social Work 97

Beata Ziębińska – About Help and Social Welfare in The Magazine “Opiekun Społeczny” (“Social Protector”) in the 1970s and 1980s 115

THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES AND METHODOLOGICAL INSPIRATIONS

Małgorzata Ciczowska-Giedziun – Constructivist Inspirations in Social Work with The Family	141
Anita Gulczyńska – “Small-Scale Backyard Revitalizations”. An Example of The Application of The Socio-Pedagogical Tradition of Activation of Local Communities with Their Own Forces in The Processes of Urban Revitalization	157
Maria Łuszczynska – Positive Social Work (PSW) – Towards a New Methodical Paradigm in Social Work	183
Tadeusz Kowalewski – Social principles of Catholic social science at the basis of social work in Poland	205
Karol Łukowski – Searching for a Place for Therapeutic Work in Social Pedagogy	225
Anna Jarkiewicz, Elżbieta Szulewicz, Magdalena Sędziak – Participation Approaches in Education for Social and Educational Work – Analysis of Students’ Experience	241