

Title of course: Intercultural education, challenges for inclusion

Lecturer: dr Cecilia Maria Zsögön

Teaching language: English

Course description:

This seminar explores the opportunities and challenges of fostering inclusion within intercultural education. Participants will analyze strategies to address cultural diversity, promote mutual understanding, and overcome barriers to inclusion. We will also explore practical strategies for fostering equity, accessibility, and belonging, addressing the needs of individuals from various backgrounds, abilities, and experiences. Through case studies and interactive discussions, the session aims to equip students with tools to create inclusive environments that value and respect diverse cultural perspectives.
